October 2012

An Open letter to all of our Chapter Members

Subject: State Convention & Trade Show, October 25, 26, and 27

We really believe that Rental Property can be Fun & Profitable!

This is an open invitation to join us at our Annual State Convention and Trade Show. We encourage you to look over the information contained in this Preconvention Booklet, and fill out the attached registration form and send it in today! If you prefer to procrastinate, you can still attend the show by registering the day of the convention (but it does help with meal planning if you pre register).

This year's Convention will focus on improving the professional level of our members. We offer 6 information packed workshops on Friday October 26th. See the attached sheet for more details. Again, this Convention is set up to assist the couple with one duplex or the family with 3 to 5 single family homes. We will also assist the contractor with 96 units. Our goal is to save you time and money along with taking out most of the frustration of being a landlord.

This year's Convention is being held in the Best Western Regency Inn in Marshalltown. The facility is very comfortable. Book your reservations today. Enjoy the free Ice Cream Social, the free breakfast, and the open hospitality room all day, the casual lunch, the wine and cheese reception, a great banquet dinner and entertainment by Sugar & Spice.

Do get away for a few days. You will have a great chance to relax and enjoy being a landlord. Talk and listen, and make new friends. See new products, services and pick up valuable ideas that will make your real job easier.

We really hope to see you at the Convention!

Sincerely,

The 2012 Landlords of Iowa Convention and Trade Show Committee
